First: Introduction
This report comes at the time when four years have passed since the beginning of the civil war in Yemen, and there is no doubt that the start of the war and its expansion into many different parts of the country has led to an increase in the number of violations that civilians have been subject to, which has led to the increase of the burden on the Commission, and its efforts, to monitor and document these violations, as well as investigate them. That is because the Commission is the only entity that has the mandate and specialty to investigate these violations that are committed all over the Republic of Yemen, and the National Commission to Investigate Alleged Violations to Human Rights has the mandate to investigate all violations of human rights that are committed anywhere in Yemen by all sides from Republic Decree No. 140 of 2012 regarding the establishment and restructuring of the National Commission to Investigate Alleged Violations to Human Rights and its amendments. The Commission is attempting, through this report, which is its sixth report, to present the results of its monitoring, documentation, and investigation work to investigate allegations of human rights violations during the period from 1/8/2018 until 31/1/2019. The release of this report comes out of the Commission’s efforts to inform local and international public opinion about the results of its work during this period, and it also comes after Human Rights Council Resolutions 39/16 and 39/21 during its thirty-ninth session on 29/9/2018. These two resolutions direct for continued support for the work of the Commission in investigating all violations all over the country, and it asks all of the parties to the conflict in Yemen to facilitate the work of the Commission, cooperate with it, and provide it with the information necessary for it to conduct these investigations.

Second: The Methodology
The National Commission to Investigate Alleged Violations to Human Rights confirms its adherence to a clear methodology in its work, which is based on the international investigation standards that are used by similar commissions, and in accordance with the principles of objectivity, transparency, impartiality, and professionalism, which are stated in the decree that established the Commission and are shown in its previous reports.

The Commission conducts its activities in monitoring, documenting, and investigating violations based on the provisions of national laws and legislations, and it does this through a number of methods and procedures that ensure it reaches the truth, like direct interviews with the victims and their families and friends, visiting the sites of the violations, listening to witnesses and preserving the details of their testimonies while taking into account the preservation of the secrecy of their testimony, ensuring the safety of the witnesses, and guaranteeing their privacy, as well as verifying the medical reports and testimony that is submitted, along with other documents and photographs to ensure their validity. The Commission has also relied on experts in criminal evidence and national military experts who have, under oath, revealed the circumstances of the violations and the types of weapons that were used, especially the types of weapons that have been used to target residential neighborhoods and civilian property. These experts have also determined the source of shelling, its distance, and its direction, and they have done this in order to reach a conclusion in determining the entity responsible for each violation.

The Commission has also used, as a part of its methodology, the review and analysis of the documents and reports that it has gotten that were issued by local and international civil society organizations that operate in the field of monitoring and documenting violations. The Commission has, on numerous occasions, called upon civilians, through its online site and its accounts on Facebook and Twitter, to submit reports relating to allegations of human rights violations to the Commission’s offices in Aden and Taiz, to any of its monitors, who are in all of the governorates of the country, or via email.

Third: The Context
As a completion of what the Commission has presented in its previous reports regarding the general context of the events that are taking place in Yemen in the previous periods, Yemen has gone through, during the period that is covered by the report, a number of important events and developments. This includes political, military, economic, or social events and developments, which have definitely cast their shadow on the general human rights situation in the country. Among the most important of these events and developments that Yemen has gone through during the period covered by the report are the following:
At the Political Level
The political situation in Yemen has had, during the period covered by the report, a number of important political developments, and the most prominent of them has been the UN-sponsored talks that took place last December between the government of Yemen and the Houthis. These talks were hosted by the Kingdom of Sweden and continued for 7 days. These talks resulted in an agreement being reached, which was not signed, between the two sides to implement a ceasefire in the Hodeidah governorate. This ceasefire was to be monitored by a team from the United Nations, which was responsible for supervising the redeployment of forces and the ceasefire. There were also two more agreements that were reached regarding the exchange of so-called prisoners of war and detainees and opening safe passages in the city of Taiz. Until the date of writing of this report, none of the items of the agreement have been implemented, including the ceasefire, and this is despite the UN monitoring team reaching the city of Hodeidah. The period that was covered by the report has also seen a decree issued by the President of the Republic of Yemen, Abd Rabboh Mansour Hadi, on 15 October 2018, to appoint Dr. Maeen Abdulmalik Saeed as Prime Minister, taking over the post of Dr. Ahmad Obaid Bin Dagher, as well as changing a number of ministers in the government.

As a result of the lack of progress in the political process, and the agreement that was reached during the talks in Sweden not being adhered to, the feeling of pessimism has returned to Yemenis after they had started becoming optimistic about the possibility of a political solution to the crisis in Yemen being reached after the announcement of an agreement being reached in Sweden.

The reality is that the lack of confidence between the two sides, and the text of the agreement that was reached in Sweden not being clear and signed upon, as well as there not being a real will between the parties to the conflict to reach peace, have all been among the key reasons hindering the implementation of the Hodeidah Agreement.

It is unfortunate that, while the two sides are still accusing each other of being responsible for hindering the Sweden Agreement, there have not been any statements from the Special Envoy of the United Nations to state which side is responsible for hindering the implementation of the agreement. This has caused what remained of the confidence of the people in the seriousness of the role of the international community towards the events in Yemen to disappear.

At the Military Level
At the military level, the period that is covered by the report has seen a number of important developments on the ground. The armed forces of the government, supported by the forces of the Arab Coalition, have been able to make noticeable progress in regaining control of a number of areas. For example, government forces have been able to reach parts of the districts of Al Hali, Bait Al Faqih, and Al Hauk in the city of Hodeidah, after having gained control, last July and August, of areas in the districts of Al Tuhaita and Hays, as well as large parts of the districts of Al Duraihimi and Zabi. Government forces have also been able to make progress in the governorates of Saadah and Hajjah. In the Hajjah governorate, government forces have taken control of the districts of Haradh and Hayran, while, during the period that the report was being written, armed clashes have started between the tribes of the area of Hajour, supported by the government and Coalition forces, and the Houthis. Fighters from the Houthis surround the tribes of Hajour in the area of Kishr from all sides, and the clashes are still ongoing until the date of this report being written. As for the Saadah governorate, government forces have taken control of some areas in the districts of Razih and Kitaf. As for the Taiz governorate, there are still Houthi fighters that are imposing a siege on the city of Taiz from three sides, and government forces control most of the neighborhoods of the city and the western side of the city, which is considered the only way into the city of Taiz because it borders areas that are under the control of the legitimate government.

At the Security Level
The period that is covered by the report witnessed a number of important security events and developments. For example, despite the noticeable improvement in security in some of the governorates that are under the control of the government, there were still some security problems in these governorates, and they had a negative effect on the total security situation in the areas under the control of the government. Among the most prominent of these problems are the continued assassinations of masjid imams and some political, military, and security officials in the Aden and Taiz governorates. In the Taiz governorate, there have been a number of armed clashes inside the city after the security forces carried out a campaign of raids in areas that they believed shelter extremist outlaw groups. There were heavy armed clashes for a number of days between government forces and members of the Abu Al Abbas Brigades that are under the command of the 35th Brigade. The Abyan governorate also went through the Security Belt Forces, which are supported by the Coalition Forces, conducting a number of security operations that targeted areas where members of the so-called Ansar Al Shariah and Al Qaeda are active, especially in the districts of Al Mahfad and Moudiyah.

In general, it can be said that the fact that not all of the security agencies and military formations that are in the areas that are under the control of the legitimate government are not under a unified leadership is the reason that there are still many security problems and armed military clashes in the areas from time to time.

On the other hand, the areas that are under the control of the Houthis have seen almost complete control by members of the group over all of the security agencies and facilities of the state, and these members are carrying out detentions, raids, and other violations. They do this because they are tasked with it and are under the command of the leadership of the group, and under the supervision of the supervisors of the group, as well as because they are the de facto authorities. This has led to a deterioration of the structure of the state. There has also been an increasing phenomenon of women being kidnapped and detained by security officers in the Houthi group, especially in the capital, Sana’a. This is a phenomenon that is new to Yemeni society, and there has also been a noticeable increase in the number of cases of arbitrary detentions and enforced disappearance against individuals opposed to the group, especially against rights activists and journalists.

At the Economic Level
The deterioration of the economic conditions in general continued during the period of the writing of the report, which has only increased the suffering of the people, who are living through a severe humanitarian crisis, according to the United Nation’s reports, and this collapse has led to a number of protests and demonstrations, especially in the areas under the control of the government. Anyone who called for protests in the areas under the control of the Houthis was arrested, and a number of activists and people suspected of calling for or organizing protests were detained, as well as everyone who tried to participate in these demonstrations. Among the detained were a number of male and female students in Sana’a University, who were subject to a wide-reaching detention campaign carried out by the security officers of the Houthis. The government of Yemen has taken a number of temporary measures and procedures to preserve the value of the currency, including calling upon the international community to support the Yemeni economy. In response to that, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia provided a cash deposit to the Central Bank of Yemen worth 2 billion USD to deal with the rapid devaluation of the currency, and this resulted in a relative improvement of the exchange rates.

Fourth: The Relationship Between the Commission and the Entities Related to Its Work
In continuation of the Commission’s work and the policies that it has followed since it started working, which are represented in its keenness to communicate with all of the parties to the conflict in Yemen, without exception, in addition to all of the parties related to its work on the human rights situation in Yemen, in order to ensure that it achieves the objectives that it was established to achieve, which is to investigate all of the human rights violations, reach all of the victims in all of the governorates and districts of the Republic of Yemen, during the period that is covered by this report, the relationship between the Commission and the related entities and parties has been as follows:

The Government of Yemen
During the period that is covered by the report, the Commission has contacted a number of concerned entities in the government that work in fields related to the work of the Commission, especially the ones that work in the field of protecting civilian rights, like the right to security, freedom of movement, and personal and civilian rights. The Commission has also be in communication with the entities responsible for some of the violations that the Commission is investigating. The Commission has written a number of memos to the Ministry of Interior and the Ministry of Defense, the Chief of Staff of the Armed Forces, security agencies in the Aden, Taiz, and Mareb governorates, the Command of the Fourth Military Region, the Command of the Taiz Axis, and the 22nd Brigade, the 35th Armored Brigade, the 83rd Artillery Brigade, and the command of the Political Security Organization in Mareb to request clarifications on a number of incidents that the Commission is investigating. The Commission also wrote a number of memos to the leadership of the local authorities in the Lahj, Dhale, Taiz, Mareb, and Hodeidah governorates. As a part of the same efforts, the Commission held numerous meetings with the head of the government, the Deputy Prime Minister, the Minister of Interior, the Minister of Social Affairs and Labor, and the Minister of Human Rights to discuss developments in the field of human rights, especially with regards to the violations that detainees, travelers, and vulnerable groups, like women and children, are subject to. The Commission also met with the Security Directors of the Taiz, Mareb, Aden, Al Jawf, Lahj, and Hadramawt governorates, prison wardens and heads of rehabilitation centers, and military police chiefs in the Aden, Taiz, Mareb, and Hadramawt governorates during field visits and inspections of prisons and detention centers. These visits were conducted by the Commission, and, during these visits, a number of recommendations were made by the Commission to these entities with the goal of curbing violations and protect and ensure adherence to human rights.

The Arab Coalition to Support the Legitimacy
The Commission has been keen, since it started operating, to be impartial with regards to all of the parties to the conflict and in a way that ensures that it gets information and is able to conduct the tasks mandated to it, which are to investigate all of the violations of human rights that are committed in Yemen that related to international humanitarian law and international human rights law. In this regards, the Chairman of the Commission met with the commander of Arab Coalition Forces during his visit to the headquarters of the Coalition Forces in Riyadh in December 2018. This visit was conducted with the goal of looking into ways to activate mechanisms to respond to the Commission on the investigations that it conducts. In addition to that, the Commission conducted a joint meeting in the main office of the Commission in the temporary capital, Aden, with the joint incident assessment team. During the meeting, a number of incidents where civilian victims were killed due to Coalition airstrikes were presented, and the team listened to the testimonies of the relatives of the victims of these incidents in the Commission’s headquarters. The Commission also drafted an inquiry memo to the commander of the Arab Coalition Forces on 13/1/2019 on 21 incidents that were attributed to Arab Coalition airstrikes, and another list was sent on 6/1/2019 with 20 incidents of alleged violations attributed to the Arab Coalition air force for a response from the joint incident assessment team.

The Houthis
Despite the Houthis not cooperating in responding to the inquiries and memos that were sent to them, the Commission continued to send memos to the leaders of the Houthis, specifically the Political Office of the group, and it also continued its work in reaching all of the areas that are under the control of the Houthis through its monitors who work in these governorates. The Commission’s monitors were able to conduct the monitoring and investigation, as well as carry out visits and inspections to the areas where the violations took place and victims were killed. In addition to that, the Commission continued to receive reports and complaints from the victims and informants from all governorates, including those that are under the control of the Houthis.

The Judicial Authorities
The Commission, in implementation of Article 5 of Republic Decree No. 50 of 2017 regarding the restructuring of the Commission, which gave the Commission the right to refer cases relating to incidents of human rights violations that were investigated to the public prosecutor to complete the legal procedures against the perpetrators of these violations of human rights, has held a number of meetings with the public prosecutor to discuss the joint work mechanism between the Commission and the public prosecutor’s office. This was done to ensure the continued submission by the Commission of completed incident files to the public prosecutor’s office, and the public prosecutor directed that a team of judges and legal specialists be formed to review and look into the incident files that are submitted by the Commission. On its side, the Commission has continued to submit the incident files that it has finished investigating to the public prosecutor’s office so that it can take the necessary legal procedures.

Civil Society Organizations
Out of the Commission’s understanding of the importance of the role played by civil society in the field of promoting and protecting human rights, the Commission has continued its cooperation and communication with local and international civil society organizations. In the field of monitoring and documenting incidents, the Commission continued to receive reports from civil society and analyze the incidents reported in them. The Commission has included these reported incidents in the Commission’s program to monitor, document, and investigate. The Commission has also completed, during the period that is covered by the report, more than 500 incident files that were documented by civil society organizations and submitted in reports to the Commission to be included in the Commission’s database. These incidents were worked on in accordance with the mechanism used by the Commission for documentation and investigation. The Commission has also conducted a number of activities that have targeted leaders and representatives of civil society, as well as conducting joint activities with the goal of exchanging information and protecting human rights. The Commission conducted, during the 39 session of the Human Rights Council, a seminar on its fifth report. A number of local and international civil society organizations participated in this seminar. During the period that is covered by this report, the Commission conducted a number of activities and initiatives to communicate and cooperate with civil society, including a discussion meeting on 8/10/2018 that was attended by 42 civil society organizations and institutions that defend human rights in the Taiz governorate. The goal of this meeting was to introduce the resolutions of the Human Rights Council during its 39th session regarding human rights in Yemen and improve the capacity of civil society on the work mechanism of the Human Rights Council as an international protection mechanism and way of working, as well as its components. The Commission also implemented, in the temporary capital, Aden, in cooperation with the Women’s Voices Coalition, a workshop on gender-based human rights violations on 26/11/2018. This was due to the international campaign to combat violence against women, and the workshop was attended by 67 civil society organizations from different backgrounds to clarify the vision of the Commission and its efforts in the field of investigating and following up with the violations that have affected women, especially during the armed conflict. The workshop resulted in the creation of a framework between the National Commission and the civil society organizations with regards to filing reports and monitoring violations and violence against women in Yemen. The Commission also held a number of meetings with the Abductees’ Mothers Association in the main headquarters of the Commission in the temporary capital, Aden, to follow up with the incidents of detentions and violation of freedoms for a number of civilians in all of the governorates of Yemen.

Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights
During the period that is covered by the report, there have been a number of meetings and discussions between the Commission and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, including three meetings in Aden and Geneva during the month of September 2018 with the representative of the UNHCHR in Yemen, the Deputy Representative, and the Head of the Middle East and North Africa Department. During these meetings, ways of increasing support for the Commission in order to help it investigate violations of human rights were discussed, especially with regards to providing experts in the field of munitions, forensic medicine, international humanitarian law, and aerial photo analysis for the sites where the violations take place. The Commission also conducted other meetings with the manager of the UNHCHR’s office in Yemen in November and December of 2018 to look into the support program that the UNHCHR will provide to the Commission based on the Human Right Council’s two resolutions that were made its 39th session. Despite the relationship and the high level of communication between the Commission and the UNHCHR, and even though it has been almost five months since the two resolutions were made by the Human Rights Council that were mentioned above, but, in the end of January 2019, none of the activities had been implemented, and no supported had been provided by the UNHCHR, except for the receipt of a clarifying letter that was sent from the office of the UNHCHR to the Commission. This letter specified the support program for the Commission during 2019, which was lower than the previous years, and only included support for the Commission to conduct three meetings with its monitors and a training course abroad for the monitors, in Jordan, for three days. It also promised to provide 30 solar power systems for the monitors, and the Commission hopes that the level of support is increased to ensure the implementation of the two resolutions of the Human Rights Council that were issued in September 2019 regarding Yemen. These two resolutions included continuing to provide support from the UNHCHR to the National Commission in building capacity, providing technical and legal support, and providing consultation to ensure that the Commission is able to conduct the tasks that are mandated to it.

Fifth: The Most Important Work that Was Completed by the Commission During the Period Covered by the Report
During the period that is covered by the report, a number of important activities were implemented by the Commission as a part of its responsibility to monitor, document, and investigate human rights violations, and these were included in the Commission’s 2018/2019 annual plan. Among the most important of these activities that the Commission conducted are the following:
At the Organizational and Institutional Level
The Commission completed, during the period that is covered by the report, archiving all of the documents and files for the cases that the Commission had received since it was established and until that date. The Commission saved all of the information digitally and archived them in internal computer servers run by the Commission, and it also made backups to outside servers that were rented by the Commission from an international company specializing in this field in order to ensure that they are safe. These external backups are updated on a daily basis. The Commission also continued to prioritize its administrative and technical staff, and it issued internal regulations that specify the functions and specializations of all of the departments, and the Commission also carried out a theoretical and practical assessment of the monitors of the Commission with the goal of reaching a comprehensive assessment of the whole monitoring process by determining its strengths and weaknesses, redrawing the map of violations, and implementing the necessary solutions to activate the field investigation process.

Capacity Building
Because of the Commission’s priority of providing capacity building for its technical and administrative staff, the Commission has carried out, during the period that is covered by the report, internal training for all of the units in the monitoring, archiving, information technology, civil society, and administrative and financial affairs departments, including courses on planning to monitor and document human rights violations. It also provided them with training on what the Human Rights Council’s resolutions are that were issued during the 39th session relating to Yemen, the HRC’s support for the Commission, and the effect that this had on the working plan of the Commission for 2019. The Commission held, in the Jordanian capital, Amman, during the period from the 8th to the 10th of January 2019, a preparatory meeting with the International Development Law Organization, and a number of the members of the Commission, the Secretary General, assistants, monitors, the monitoring department, the archiving department, the information technology department, the secretariat, and the finance department attended to discuss the project to support the Commission and build its capacity to monitor human rights violations and violations of international humanitarian law in Yemen, as well as its ability to document and investigate these incidents and write reports on them. During the meeting, the needs of the Commission in the fields of investigation, referrals, legal expertise, and the inclusion of gender issues in the investigations of the Commission were also discussed.

Monitoring and Documentation
The Commission has worked to increase its efforts in the field of monitoring and documenting violations of human rights, especially after the two resolutions of the Human Rights Council (Resolutions 39/16 and 39/21, which were issued on 29/9/2018). These two resolutions reiterated the importance of the support for the Commission continuing so that it could do its job in investigating human rights violations. The Commission has worked, during the period that is covered by the report, to increase its ability to access the highest number of victims of violations in all parts of Yemen, and it did this by increasing the number of monitors to 38, in addition to expanding the network of volunteers working with the Commission in the remote districts, especially in the governorates of Saadah, Hajjah, Al Hodeidah, and Raymah.

During the period that is covered by the report, the Commission has been able to conduct monitoring and documentation activities for more than (3007) incidents of allegations of violations in the different governorates of the country, distributed over more than (30) types of human rights violations. The Commission has heard, during these activities, to testimony from more than (7500) witnesses and informants, and it has reviewed around (12000) documents, in addition to reviewing and analyzing hundreds of photographs and video clips relating to the violations, which were worked on and preserved in the database of the Commission.

Investigating Violations
The Commission has been able, thanks to the efforts of its staff, including the members, the investigators, the assistants, and the monitors, achieve great progress in reaching new areas in the field in the different governorates in Yemen to conduct direct investigations of the violations. The Commission carried out, during the period that is covered by the report, a number of field visits that were conducted by the members of the Commission to the Mareb, Hadramawt, Dhale, Taiz, Al Jawf, Lahj, and Abyan governorates. During these field visits, the members of the Commission visited and inspected a number of prisons and rehabilitation centers and investigated incidents of important allegations of violations committed in these governorates. The monitors of the Commission have also conducted, on an almost daily basis, a number of field visits to inspect the sites of the violations where there have been victims due to civilians being targeted by different types of projectiles, mines exploding, homes being blown up, or forcible displacement, especially in some of the remote areas, including the districts of Mawza’, Al Wazi’iyah, and Saber Al Mawadim in the Taiz governorate, Al Sabrah, Al Makhadir, Yareem, and Al Qafr in the Ibb governorate, Arhab and Manakhah in the Sana’a governorate, the Al Madharabah, Ra’s Al ‘Arah, Tawr Al Bahah, and Al Qubaitah in the Lahij governorate, Khab Wal Sha’f in the Al Jawf governorate, Dhi Na’im, Al Zahir, Qaifah, and Rada’a in the Al Baydha governorate, Damt, Murais, and Qa’tabah in the Dhale governorate, Al Dura’ihi, Al Tuhaita, Bait Al Fiqih, and Al Mansourah in the Al Hodeidah governorate, Razih and Saqain in the Saada governorate, Abs, Haradh, Mustaba’a, Kishr, and Bakil Al Mair in the Hajjah governorate, Al Rajm and Al Khabt in the Mahwit governorate, and Lawdar and Mahfad in the Abyan governorate.

During the period that is covered by the report, the Commission has been able to complete investigations into (2507) incidents of allegations that were monitored by the Commission’s team, which included more than (30) types of violations that the Commission made a priority in its work to monitor, document, and investigate violations.

Section One: Examples of the Most Important Investigations Conducted by the Commission into Violations Relating to International Humanitarian Law

First: Killing and Injuring Civilians

National legislation and international agreements and conventions have stressed the importance of protecting civilians from the dangers resulting from military operations, and they have also prohibited attacking, threatening, or terrorizing them. Based on that and based on the text of Joint Article 3 of the four Geneva Conventions, and Paragraphs 1 to 3 of Article 13 of Additional Protocol II of the Geneva Convention relating to the protection of victims of non-international armed conflicts, the Commission has given these violations a large portion of its efforts in monitoring and investigation. It has done this because of the negative effects that these kinds of violations have, whether with regards to the number of victims or the type of damage that indiscriminate, accidental, or purposeful attacks have on civilians and residential neighborhoods, including the killing, injuring, or terrorizing civilians. The concern of the Commission in these kinds of violations has been reflected in the results of its monitoring and investigation activities that it conducted, where the total number of cases that were documented by the Commission during the period covered by the report, which is six months, are:

(776) incidents of civilians being killed or injured, this contains (1119) victims, in which (408) were killed, including (67) women and (89) children, in addition to (711) victims being injured, among them (95) children and (131) women. The responsibility for these violations is distributed among the parties to the conflict as follows:

(185) victims killed and (591) injured are the responsibility of the Houthis,

(223) victims killed and (120) injured are the responsibility of the air force of the Arab Coalition and government forces.

Examples of incidents of civilians being killed or injured that were investigated by the Commission and are the responsibility of the Houthis and Saleh’s forces:

1. The incident of the bombing of the IDP camp in the Al Khawkhah district in the Hodeidah governorate on 5/10/2018:

During the incident, according to the case file that the Commission has, and according to what was proven by the documents and reports included in the file, at 11:00 am on 5/10/2018, a missile landed in the middle of the Al Jaber Camp for IDPs in the district of Al Khawkhah in the Hodeidah governorate, destroying 8 tents and killing 1 woman and injuring 14 others, including 10 women and 3 children.

According to the testimony of the victims and their relatives, as well as the statements of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission, and they include MMS, MNM, and ADShA, at 11 am on 5/10/2018, they heard the sound of an explosion from the area to the northeast of the Al Jaber Camp for IDPs, and it was the result of a missile hitting a farm near the camp. There was also another explosion from a missile falling in the middle of the camp, and this led to a number of victims from among the IDPs in the camp. There were 15 victims, including a woman who was killed, and her name is Hajjah Ahmad Saeed. There were 14 victims who sustained varying levels of injuries, and they were taken to the field hospital in Al Khawkhah. The bombing completely destroyed 8 tents and everything that was in them. From the reports of the inspection that were submitted by the team that was tasked with making a field visit by the Commission, and what was in the statements of the residents of the camp who were interviewed, the location that the missile hit is an IDP camp, and there are no military targets or bases in it or near it. According to the statements from the relatives of the victims and what was included in the report of the team that conducted the field visit from the Commission, the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission, and they include AAA, AASM, AAA, and MAAA, in the morning of Monday at around 11 am on 22/1/2018, a missile that is believed to be a Katyusha struck the Al Khayami village, landing near the village cemetery, which lead to the injury of a child named Amran Afif (15 years old). After that, the people of the village gathered near the home of Abdoh Yaseen to see the injured boy, who had been moved there, and to try to help him. After less than half an hour, the people heard the whistling of another missile, which landed near the area where the people of the village were gathered, near the home of Abdoh Yaseen. It landed around 10 meters away from them, and there were many victims from that strike, either killed or injured. The strike also killed a high number of livestock animals. Around ten minutes later, the third missile struck, and it was at least 500 meters from the site where the second missile, and no one was injured because it landed in a farm. Ten minutes later, the people of the village heard the explosion of a fourth shell that landed in front of the door of the technical institute in the village of Al Khayami, where the special security forces (the Central Security Forces) had been holding a demonstration around 15 minutes before the bombing. The last shell led to more people being killed and injured, and they are all civilians. The technical institute, where the fourth shell hit, is around 1,500 meters from the location of the first shell, and around 1,000 from the location of the second shell. From the inspection and assessment of all of these shells, it was concluded that they were launched from the area of Dimnat Khudair to the east of the village of Al Khayami, and that area is under the control of the Houthis. The village that was targeted by these shells is a large residential area that is around 50 kilometers from the areas of the clashes.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that have been conducted by the Commission, the evidence that has been collected from the site of the shelling, the testimony of the witnesses and the statements of the relatives of the victim, what was included in the reports included in the incident file, including the report on the shrapnel and the projectiles, and the direction of the shells, it has become clear to the Commission that the violation has occurred, and that the entity responsible for this violation are the Houthis that are in control of the area of Dimnat Khudair, which borders the Al Ma’afir district from the east, and where fighters from the group are positioned.

Examples of incidents of civilians being killed or injured that are the responsibility of the Arab Coalition Air Force and government forces:

1. The incident of an airstrike targeting a fishing boat in the village of Sirah in the Zinjibar district of the Abyan governorate on 12/8/2015

According to the report that was submitted by the field visit team that was tasked by the Commission, the statements of the relatives of the victims, and the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission (the witnesses include MBHA, SANA, SHAA, and SANA), at 5 am of the morning of 12/8/2015, a fishing boat that the victims mentioned above was targeted, and the boat was on the coast of the village of Sirah in the Zinjibar district of the Abyan governorate. It was hit by two missiles from an air force plane of the Arab Coalition forces that had been flying over the village, and it was seen by civilians from the village while flying overhead and when it fired the missiles at the boat, which led to the destruction of the boat and killed everyone on board. This was despite, according to what was included in the statements and the testimonies of the witnesses, the fact that there were no military targets on the coast of the village at the time, and the victims were all fishermen from the village, and they had nothing to do with the war.
Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission in this incident, what was included in the case file, including the photographs, documents, death certificates, field visit memos, and inspection reports, the statements of the victim’s relatives, the testimony of the witnesses, the Commission has concluded that the violation has been committed, and that the entity responsible for this violation is the air force of the Arab Coalition to Support the Legitimacy in Yemen. This is because the fishing boat was targeted by a war plane that was seen by the civilians while flying over the village of Sirah and while it was firing missiles at the boat that the victims were on, and because the air force of the Arab Coalition was in control of the airspace above Yemen at the time. The Commission has contacted the command of the Coalition forces regarding this incident, and it has requested that they respond to inquiries about the incident. This was done in a memo from the National Commission that was sent to the command of the Coalition Forces through the liaison officer. The Commission has yet to get, as of the writing of this report, any response regarding this incident.

The Commission started investigating the case through a field visit to the site of the incident, and it interviewed a number of the relatives of the victims and listened to the testimony of the witnesses and first responders, including AAMM, MHS, and MMAH. The witnesses stated that the airplanes were flying over the area at the time that the vehicle of the victim, Mahfoudh Ghaleb, was driving down the road near the Mawza’ Fork in the area of Al Arish, and there was a large number of passengers on it. At that moment, the car was directly targeted by a missile, which killed all of the passengers that were on it. After that, the airplanes continued to fly over the area, and none of the residents of the area were able to get close to the site of the airstrike for a few hours out of fear that it would be bombed again. After they were sure that the planes were gone, the people of the village went to the site and found the bodies of the victims, which had been burnt, along with body parts spread out over the area. They collected the bodies and body parts and buried them, and witnesses stated that there were no military bases or military targets in the area that was bombed and that all of the victims were civilians.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, the report from the field team, the statements of the victims and their relatives, the testimony of the witnesses of the incident who were... interviewed by the Commission, the death certificates of the victims, which are included in the file, and since the incident took place in the afternoon and most of the people in the area heard the planes and saw them flying low overhead before the vehicle as bombed by an air-to-surface missile, completely destroying it and killing all of its passengers, and since the airspace of the Republic of Yemen is under the sole control of the Arab Coalition to Support the Legitimacy, it is confirmed to the Commission that the air force of the Arab Coalition is responsible for this incident. The Commission has contacted the command of the Arab Coalition forces regarding this incident, and it has requested that they respond to an inquiry on it in a memo that was sent from the National Commission to the command of the Coalition Forces through the liaison officer, but, as of the writing of this report, the Commission has not gotten a response from the Coalition Forces regarding this incident.

The Commission started investigating the incident during a field visit to the site of the incident and interviews with the relatives of the victims. The commission interviewed a large number of witnesses and first responders, including MQGH, MMHH, RAB, and FMAA, and they said that, after Houthi fighters and Saleh’s forces took control of the Crater district, a number of these fighters were positioned in the area of Al Ma’a ash-eq in the home of the former president, Ali Salem Al Beidh, as well as in the headquarters of the Al Ahli Bank and the tennis club. There were a number of snipers on the buildings, and the air force of the Arab Coalition would heavily bomb the area on a regular basis. On Monday, 27/4/2015, there were many planes flying overhead, and, at 8 am, the people of the area were surprised with a missile that hit the building of the victim, Qassim Al Tayyib. This was a three-story building, and it was completely destroyed by the airstrike. During this airstrike, Yunus Qassim Al Tayyib, his wife, Bushra Qassim Ghulam, his son, Qassim Yunus Al Tayyib, and his brother, Eyhab Yunus Qassim Muhammad Al Tayyib, were killed, while his nephew, Eyhab Yunus Qassim Al Tayyib and his daughter, Maryam Yunus Qassim, were injured. After that, the people of the area rushed to the area of the airstrike, and they took the bodies out from under the rubble and took the injured victims to the hospital for treatment.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission into this incident, the content of the report from the field team, the statements of the relatives of the victims, the testimony of the witnesses and first responders who were interviewed by the Commission, the content of the medical reports and death certificates of the victims, because the incident took place in the morning and most of the people of the area heard a plane flying around at a low altitude over the area before the bombing of the victim’s building, and because all of the investigations that were conducted by the Commission confirm it, the Commission concludes that the violation occurred and that it was conducted by an airstrike. Because the airspace of the Republic of Yemen during the period of the war is under the complete control of the forces of the Arab Coalition to Support the Legitimacy, the Commission confirms that the violation has occurred and that the air force of the Coalition is responsible for it.

Second: Recruitment of Children

The recruitment of children is a gross violation that is prohibited by national legislation and international agreements that protect children, especially the Convention on the Rights of the Child, which is ratified by the Republic of Yemen, the First Optional Protocol of the Convention, both of which prohibit the use and recruitment of children during armed conflict. There is also the Child Rights Act, which is in line with the Convention. For this reason, the Commission has focused on these kinds of violations, especially since there have been many photographs available showing the use and recruitment of children during the armed conflict, whether through their direct involvement in the fighting or by providing support to the fighters, which puts the lives of these children at risk.

During the period that is covered by the report, the Commission has documented and investigated (51) incidents of violations relating to the recruitment of children and their use in fighting or military operations. All of these violations relating to the recruitment of children were perpetrated by the Houthis.

Examples of a number of incidents that the Commission has investigated relating to the recruitment of children:

1. The incident of recruited children and the killing of YASA, a 15-year-old child, in the Capital Secretariat on 4/12/2018

   According to the case file that the Commission has, a 15-year-old child (YASA), who is from the Al Saffiyah neighborhood in the Capital Secretariat, was first taken from school and recruited in the end of 2017. After his father made reports and complaints, and demanded that his son be returned to him, the victim was allowed to return. After that, on 20/11/2018, the victim called his mother, who lives in a separate home, and told her that he will go to a friend of his, but he disappeared after that for 14 days. After his family looked for him, they were informed that he had been killed on the frontlines of the fighting, and that his body was in the military hospital.

   According to the statements from the relatives of the child victim, the testimony of the witnesses of the incident who were interviewed by the Commission, including MAMJ and AASA, in the end of 2017, the child, YASA (15 years old), who was studying in ninth grade, was taken from the school that he was in by a man named Ibrahim Al Suraihi, also known as Abu Malik, who is a high-ranking member of the Houthis. This man recruits children from the Badr Center, which is next to the Badr Masjid in the Al Saffiyah neighborhood on 45 Street. The victim was taken to the frontlines to fight, without the knowledge or consent of his mother and father. At the time, the father of the child looked for his son, and he filed a number of reports and complaints to the Criminal Investigation Department and the 45 Street Police Station in the Capital Secretariat. Then, through connections with Mubarak Al Mashan, a high-ranking member of the Houthis in the area of Al Saffiyah in the Capital Secretariat, who asked the father to take back his report against Ibrahim Al Suraihi in return for his son being returned to him. The child was returned home, but he had gotten ideological seminars and courses, and he had been given military and cultural training courses by the leadership of the Houthis. After that, on 20/11/2018, the child victim called his mother, who was living separately from his father, and he told her that he was going to go to his friend. He disappeared after that phone call. After the family of the victim followed up and searched for him, they received, on 14/12/2018, a phone call from members of the Houthis, who told them that the child had been killed and that his body was in the military hospital morgue.

   Conclusion:

   From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, the statements made by the informant and the testimony of the witnesses of the incident, the Commission has reached the conclusion that the Houthis are responsible for this violation, specifically the management of the Badr Center in the Al Saffiyah neighborhood and a high-ranking member of the Houthis named Ibrahim Al Suraihi or Abu Malik, in addition to the leadership of the group that was responsible for recruiting the child victim, training him, and sending him to the frontlines of the fighting.

2. The incident of the recruitment of children, and they are: MMSA, AAQ, AYZ, AKhA, and ZMS, in the Al Farooq School in Al Rajm, the Al Rajm district, in the Al Mahwit governorate, on 14/11/2018

   According to the case file for the incident, the statements made by the families of the victims, and the testimony of the witnesses, MHS and SAH, on 14/11/2018 five children who were students in the Al Farooq School in the Al Rajm district of the Al Mahwit governorate were recruited, and all of them were under the age of 15. This was done at the orders of the district supervisor, who is named Abu Malik, and a group of other high-ranking members of the Houthis in the district, including Ali Yahya Al Marjalah and Bassam Saleh. This was done with the purpose of sending them off to fight and deploying them to the frontlines of the fighting, especially after the failure of the campaigns to recruit adults to fight. This forced the leaders of the group to kidnap some children from schools and public areas and recruit them, without the consent or even the knowledge of their families. The statement of the relatives of the victims stated that the leadership of the group refuses to return the children to their families, despite the repeated pleas of the families and their demand to have their children returned.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that the Commission conducted, the contents of the case file, the reports that are included, and the testimony of the witnesses, it has become clear to the Commission that this violation occurred, and that the entity responsible for perpetrating this violation is the Houthi group under the leadership of the district supervisor, Abu Malik. These actions were committed with the participation of a number of leading Houthis in the district, and they include Ali Yahya Al Marjalah and Bassam Saleh, in addition to the leadership of the group that was responsible for recruiting the child victim, training him, and sending him to the frontlines of the fighting.

3. The incident of the recruitment and killing of WAQA, 15 years old, in the Iyal Surayh district of the Amran governorate on 17/4/2018

According to the case file, the content of the statements of the relatives of the victim, and the testimony of the witnesses, including HQMG and SHHA, on 17/4/2018, members of the Houthis, under the leadership of the security supervisor in the district, took the victim, a 15-year-old child named WAQA, to one of the military bases of the group. They did this without the knowledge or consent of his family, and there they recruited the child and trained him in the use of different weapons during a military and cultural training course that lasted for two weeks. After that, the child was sent to the frontlines of the fighting in Hodeidah to fight in the ranks of the Houthis. A while after he was sent, the family of the victim was informed that he had been killed in the frontlines of the fighting in the Al Tuhaita district in the Hodeidah governorate.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, the content of the case file, the included reports, and the testimony of the witnesses, it has become clear to the Commission that the violation occurred against the victim, and that the entity responsible for committing this violation is the Houthi group under the leadership of the group’s supervisor in the Iyal Surayh district, in addition to the rest of the leadership of the group, who were responsible for recruiting the child victim, training him, and sending him to the frontlines of the fighting.

4. The incident of the recruitment and killing of the victim, HASH, 14 years old, in the Sanhan district of the Sana’a governorate

According to the case file that the Commission has, the statements of the relatives of the victims, the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission, and they include HAAS and MAAJ, in the beginning of 2018, the child victim, HASH (14 years old), who is from the Wadi Al Ajbar sub-district of the Sanhan district in the Sana’a governorate, was recruited. He was born in 2004, and he was recruited to fight by the supervisor and high-ranking members of the Houthis in the Sanhan district. They recruited the child and included him in the ranks of the group, and they took him to one of the group’s military bases. There, he was subject to a cultural and military training course for two weeks, then he was sent to the frontlines of the fighting on the western coast to fight in the ranks of the group in the battles that were going on there. On 1/11/2018, the family of the victim was informed that he had been killed while fighting in the ranks of the Houthis in the western coast.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, what was included in the case file, and the testimony of the witnesses, the Commission believes that the violation against the victim occurred, and that the entity responsible for committing this violation is the Houthi group under the leadership of the group’s supervisor in the Sanhan district, in addition to the rest of the high-ranking members of the group who recruited the victim, trained him, and sent him to the frontlines of the fighting.

Third: Laying Mines

The Commission included the crime of laying mines among the violations that the Commission considers a priority during the monitoring and investigation process. During the period that is covered by the report, the Commission has documented (44) cases of anti-personnel mines being laid, resulting in (52) deaths, including (4) women and (11) children, as well as (30) injuries, including (8) women and (4) children.

The injured victims were taken to the Doctors Without Borders hospital in Mokha, then they were transferred to the Aden governorate for treatment. The victims who were killed, their body parts were gathered, and they were buried in the village. Witnesses of the incident stated that the Houthis are the ones that are responsible for this violation because they are the ones that were in control of the farm, and they had laid a number of mines in numerous farms before they withdrew from the war. This was done with the objective of hindering the progress of the fighters in the resistance and the army.

They were in the area of the 5th Brigade in the Tabn district of the Lahj governorate. The mine had been paid by the Houthis and Saleh’s forces, which were in control of the area, before they withdrew from it. The explosion killed two of the victims (Nasi Saleh Salem Ali and Abdoh Awadh Haidarah), and it injured Saleh Salem Awadh Nasser in his right eye. 4. The incident of the explosion of an anti-personnel landmine in the Arhab district, Bani Al Zubair, in the Sana’a governorate on 6/10/2018

According to the case file of the incident that the Commission has and the testimony of the witnesses, including RMS and AHR, at 11:00 am on 6/10/2018, an anti-personnel mine exploded when a child, Hameed Bakeel Ali Al Zubairi, who was 13 years old, walked over it while returning home from school. The explosion killed the child immediately. According to the testimony of witnesses from the area, the area where the mine was planed is a side road in the district of Arhab, in the Sana’a governorate, and it is in an area that is under the control of the Houthis. The Houthis lay mines in these areas to hinder any attacks or progress towards the areas that they control.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission into the incident mentioned above, as well as other incidents relating to the laying of anti-personnel mines, the Commission has concluded that the Houthis are responsible for these violations. They are the only group that uses perpetrates these kinds of violations out of all of the parties participating in the armed conflict in Yemen, and they do it in a systematic manner in all of the military sites that they control, as well as the roads and areas that they withdraw from. As the Commission found out, from numerous pieces of evidence and the testimony of mine removal experts who were interviewed by the Commission in a number of areas, the Houthis manufacture the anti-personnel mines locally and in factories that they have set up using the equipment and headquarters of the army that they have taken control of. They distribute these mines and store them in all areas and governorates, which is in violation of international agreements that Yemen has ratified, which prohibit the manufacturing, transportation, storage, and use of these kinds of mines.

Fourth: Attacks on Cultural Objects
The Commission has made the monitoring and documentation of violations against cultural objects, including historic sites and valuable cultural property, which form an important part of the history and heritage of the Yemeni people, a priority for it. Any attack or damage to them is a crime according to the provisions of national legislation, and it is also a gross violation of international agreements, including the Hague Convention, which the Republic of Yemen has ratified. These actions also violate the provisions of Article 16 of Additional Protocol II of the Geneva Conventions, which is one non-international armed conflicts and prohibits any hostilities against historic sites or artworks that are a part of the cultural and spiritual heritage of a people.

In this regard, the Committee has, during the period covered by this report, monitored and documented (5) cases of allegations attacks or damage to cultural or historic objects or property in a number of areas. The responsibility of the Houthis has been proven for (3) of the incidents, while the responsibility of the national army forces of the government and the air force of the Arab Coalition has been proven for (2) incidents.

Examples of the investigations conducted by the Commission into incidents of attacks on cultural objects
1) The Houthis
1. The incident of using the Al Baydha Fortress as a military base in the Al Baydha governorate

Introduction to the History of the Al Baydha Fortress:
The Al Baydha Fortress is located on a rock formation that overlooks the city of Al Baydha, and it is around 2,500 meters above sea level. It is made up of a number of forts and guard towers, and is surrounded by a circular wall from all directions. The area that the Fortress was built on was the old city of Al Baydha, and the modern-day city of Al Baydha gets its name from the Fortress and the rock formation that it is built upon. Al Baydha is the capital of the Al Baydha governorate, and it was called Al Baydha (which means ‘white’ in Arabic) because of the white color of the mountain that the fortress is built upon. There are a number of theories regarding when the Fortress was built and its history, with some people believing that it was built during the reign of a Himyarite king, Shammar Yahra’ash, and the proof of this is that there are people, even today, that call the fortress and the city Shammar Fortress. Others believe that the fortress was built later, and that it was used as the center of administration for the states and sultans that ruled over the city of Al Baydha and the areas surrounding it. During the reign of Imam Yahya Hamidaldin, after the army took control of the city of Al Baydha, the Fortress was used as the center of administration and the commanders of the army resided there. During that time, some buildings were added to the Fortress, and the old wall was repaired. The wall was repaired again after the establishment of the republic.

Incident Summary:
According to the statement of the manager of the district of Al Baydha, and testimony of witnesses, including HMS and MAL, when members of the Houthis raided the city of Al Baydha in the beginning of 2015, they spread out through the city and took control of all government centers and military and security facilities in it and in the areas that they controlled. They raided the Al Baydha Fortress, where a large number of them were positioned, and they turned the Fortress into a military base. The used the buildings and facilities of the Fortress as an administrative and military base for them, and the members of the Houthis are still positioned in the Fortress. They continue to use it as a command base for their military operations, which could put it at risk of being bombed and damage the building and historic landmarks in it.
Conclusion:
Through the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed, and the photographs in the case file, the Houthi members in the Al Baydha governorate, under the leadership of the group’s supervisor, Abu Ahmad Hamran, are responsible for this violation.

2. The incident of the bombing of the Dar Al Hayd Fortress, which is known as the residence of Prince Sha’fal (Al Dhale)

Introduction to the Dar Al Hayd Fortress:
The Dar Al Hayd Fortress is a historic fortress in the Al Dhale governorate, and it is one of the most important historic landmarks in the city of Al Dhale. It was built in the 13th century, and it is located on a tall rocky ridge overlooking the city of Al Dhale from the south. It is a four-story fortress, and it is located to the west of the historic Ottoman fortress. It is surrounded by high walls with watchtowers and defensive fortifications, and it was built to defend the city and be the center of the rule of the emirs of the family that ruled the capital of their emirate, Al Dhale city. There are many historic buildings next to the Fortress, and these buildings have played an important role in the history of the Emirate of Al Dhale.

Summary of the Incident:
According to the case file, the photographs and videos in it, and the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission, including MAA and AMA, and based on the report from the field researcher who was tasked with making a field visit by the Commission, during the period from 29/3/2015 and until 25/5/2015, the Dar Al Hayd Fortress, which is known the residence of Prince Sha’fal, was bombed by the Houthis and Saleh’s forces who were positioned in the headquarters of the Aboud Brigade, where the 33rd armored brigade was under the leadership of General Abdullah Dhab’an. The bombing continued, on and off, for more than two months, and it destroyed a part of the buildings of the fortress and damaged it, as is shown in the photographs and documents included in the file.

Conclusion:
From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, the content of the testimony of the witnesses, the reports of the field team that was tasked with conducting a field visit, and the photographs and video clips submitted, the Houthis and Saleh’s forces are responsible for this violation.

2) The Coalition Air Force and Government Forces
1- The destruction of the Al Fazah Masjid in the Al Tuhaita district of the Al Hodeidah governorate

A History of the Al Fazah Masjid:
The Al Fazah Masjid is one of the oldest masjids in Yemen, and it is located in the village of Al Fazah on the coast of the Red Sea in the Tuhaita district. It is located 10 kilometers to the west of the town of Zabid, and this masjid is on an elevated rocky area that is just four meters above the sea level. The Al Fazah Masjid was built by a religious leader and scholar named Ahmad Al Fazah, and this was during the period of the Najahid and Sulayhid dynasties in the fifth and sixth centuries after the Hijrah, or the 11th and 12th centuries AD. The Al Fazah Masjid overlooks the Al Fazah coast, with the waves coming up to the small hill that the masjid was built upon. In the western wall of the masjid, which overlooks the sea, there is a door that leads to stairs going down to the sea level. The masjid is made of a rectangular brick building, and it has a covered entrance to the south and a prayer hall to the north that extends the whole length of the entrance. The bathrooms and ablution areas are to the west, followed by the minaret of the masjid. Attached to this masjid is a graveyard that is located to the southwest of the masjid. The prayer hall is entered from the entrance, which comes in through the south through a knotted door in the southern wall. The prayer hall is rectangular and is divided into three parts by pillars, with two the eastern and western wings and the tiled altar in the middle. On top of the prayer hall are three onion-shaped domes, and each dome has four corners, and each one of these corner areas is made up of nine stations or lines that have more lines the higher you go. In the eastern and western walls of the prayer hall, there are two knotted windows, and there are two entrances on the eastern wall and one in the western wall.

Summary of the Incident:
According to the case file that the Commission has and what the Commission’s field team proved when it made the field visit to the site of the violation, as well as the photographs and videos that are included in the file and the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission, and they are MAM and JSD, after the control of the forces of the national army on the area, the Al Fazah Masjid was still undamaged. On 24/11/2018, the Al Fazah Masjid in the Tuhaita district in the Hodeidah governorate was destroyed and leveled by the Al Amaliqah Forces that had taken control of the area after the Houthis withdrew from it. They did this with bulldozers, which destroyed all of the buildings of the masjid, and the tire tracks were still there when the Commission’s team went to visit the site of the destroyed Masjid. The reason that they destroyed this masjid was that there was a shrine in the masjid, which is something that is considered prohibited among some sects in Islam.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed, the report of the team that visited the site, and the photographs and videos of the masjid, the forces of the national army of the legitimate government, specifically the Al Amaliqah Brigade forces that are affiliated with the government are responsible for this violation.

The Sulayhid dynasty was launched from the fortress, and it was a dynasty that ruled over all of Yemen.

Summary of the Incident:

According to the case file that the Commission has, on 17/4/2018, the Masar Fortress in the Manakah district in the Sana’a governorate was hit by an airstrike, which led to the destruction of the wall of the fortress and some of the historic buildings inside it. The airstrike also caused damage and destruction to a number of homes near the fortress, killing and injuring a number of civilians who live in the nearby homes.

According to the case file that the Commission has, the report of the field researcher who was tasked with making a field visit, the photographs and videos attached to the file, and the testimony of the witnesses from the area, including MQA, AAH, and MMA, on Monday, 17/4/2018, at around 9 am, the Masar Fortress and the neighboring homes in the village of Masar in the Manakah district in the Sana’a governorate were targeted by an airstrike, and planes had conducted a number of air raids in the area that continued until 3 pm. From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, the testimony of the witnesses that were interviewed by the Commission, what was included in the report of the field researcher who was tasked with making a field visit, and the photographs and videos from the site, the Arab Coalition air force is responsible for this violation. A memo was sent to inquire about this incident from the Commission to the command of the Arab Coalition forces, but the Commission has yet to receive a response as of the writing of this report.
Fifth: Targeting Medical Units and Healthcare Facilities

Medical facilities, clinics, field hospitals, mobile clinics, and all medical buildings and units are considered objects whose attack, targeting, or harming of their employees is prohibited based on national laws and legislation, as well as based on the provisions and texts of international humanitarian law and Articles 9 – 12 of Additional Protocol II of the Geneva Convention.

Through the work of the Commission during the period that is covered by this report, (4) cases of allegations of attacks on medical units and healthcare facilities were monitored and documented. The Houthis were proven to have been responsible for (4) incidents, while the government and the forces of the Arab Coalition were proven to be responsible for (2) incidents.

Examples of the investigations conducted by the Commission into incidents of medical units and healthcare facilities being targeted

1) The incidents attributed to the Houthis

1 – The targeting of the Yemeni-Swedish Hospital in the Al Qahirah district in the Taiz governorate:

According to the case file that the Commission has, the Houthis and Saleh’s forces raided the building of the Yemeni-Swedish Hospital for Children and forced the medical staff out of the hospital, turning it into a military base. This took place on 15/7/2015.

According to the documents attached to the file that the Commission has, the reports on the field visits and inspections submitted by the Commission’s team that was tasked with carrying out these visits, and the testimony of the witnesses and statements from a number of the members of the medical and administrative staff of the hospital, including AAFD, NAA, and WMS, in May 2015, Houthi and Saleh fighters took control of the area of Al Urdhi, where the Yemeni-Swedish Hospital for Children is located. They raided the hospital and turned it into a military base, and they put to tanks in front of the door of the hospital. The two tanks would shell different neighborhoods in the city from in front of the door of the hospital, which broke the windows of the hospital and destroyed some of the equipment, furniture, and medical tools in all of the departments of the hospital because of the pressure from the shelling. This also led to the killing of two premature babies who were in the incubators in the hospital. On 18/7/2015, members of the Houthis and Saleh’s forces forced out all of the employees of the hospital and put four snipers in the building. One of the snipers was positioned in the emergency unit, the other on the third floor, the third on the roof, and the fourth in the nutrition department on the fourth floor. They also put sandbags in all of the windows of the hospital. On 19/7/2015, while some of the members of the medical staff were trying to go into the hospital, they were not allowed to enter, and a number of them were arrested. The hospital did not operate until 19/8/2015, when the resistance forces took control of the area.

Conclusion:

Based on the inspection reports that were submitted by the team that was tasked with conducting a field visit by the Commission, the testimonies of the members of the medical staff of the hospital, in addition to the reports and photographs that show the effects of the shrapnel from the shells, the Commission has concluded that this violation has occurred and that the Houthis and Saleh’s forces were responsible for it.

2 – The incident of using the Al Watiyah Clinic in the Al Baydha governorate (in the Suwadiah district) as a detention center and military base

According to the case file that the Commission has on the incident, during 2016, after the Houthis took control of the Al Baydha governorate and the Suwadiah district, a number of Houthis raided the Al Watiyah Clinic in the Suwadiah district. The clinic is located on the main road that links the Al Baydha governorate to the Mareb governorate, and the Houthis turned it into a detention center and a military base under the control of the group.

According to the field visit report that was submitted by the field researcher tasked by the Commission to conduct a field visit, the photographs and documents included in the file, and the testimony of the witnesses, including YHM and NAM, members of the Houthis raided the Al Watiyah Health Clinic on the main road between the Mareb and Al Baydha governorates in early 2016. They closed the clinics to the public and turned the rooms and departments in it into detention blocks where they would detain the travelers that the group stopped on their way through the public road from or to Al Baydha. In the clinic building, they would interrogate the civilians and detain them for long periods. The members of the Houthis also turned some of the rooms in the clinic into barracks to shelter some of the armed members... of the group, and they put up sandbags and barriers at the door of the clinic, in the windows, and on the rood, as is shown by the pictures that are included in the file.

Conclusion:

Based on the report from the field researcher who was tasked with conducting a field visit by the Commission, and the testimony of witnesses, the Commission has concluded that this violation has occurred and that the Houthis and Saleh’s forces are the ones responsible for it.

2) The incidents of violations relating to the targeting of healthcare units and facilities attributed to government forces and the Coalition’s air force

1 – The incident of the bombing of the Al Watan Hospital in the area of Al Wasi’ah in the Hareeb district of the Mareb governorate on 26/4/2015

According to the case file for the incident that the Commission has, after the Houthis and Saleh’s forces took control of the district of Hareeb in the Mareb governorate, positioned themselves in the mountains surrounding the area of Al Wasi’ah, which is near the Al Watan Hospital, and established military bases in the area, the hospital was bombed by the Arab Coalition air force, which completely destroyed it.

According to the field visit report that was submitted by the field researcher who was tasked to visit by the Commission, the photographs and documents included in the file, and the testimony of the witnesses, NAJ and AYH, a few months before the war started, the Al Watan Hospital in the Hareeb district of the Mareb governorate was prepared and provided with modern equipment and supplies so that it could serve the people of the area. But, before the hospital could be opened, and after the start of the war and the Houthis and Saleh’s forces taking control of the area, the Houthis and Saleh’s forces set up military bases in the mountains overlooking the area, near the hospital. On 26/4/2015, at 9:30 am, the people of the area saw lanes flying low overhead. Moments after that, they heard the sounds of powerful explosions, and they saw dust and flames in the area over the hospital building, which had been completely destroyed. This was carried out despite there not being any armed men inside the hospital, and the nearest military position of the Houthis and Saleh’s forces was at least 100 meters away from the hospital.

Conclusion:

Based on what was included in the report submitted by the field researcher tasked with conducting a field visit by the Commission and what was in the testimony of the witnesses, the Commission has concluded that this violation has occurred, and that the air force of the Arab Coalition is responsible for it because they are in control of the airspace of the Republic of Yemen during the war. It should be noted that the Commission has drafted a memo of inquiry on the incident and sent it to the command of the Arab Coalition Forces but has not gotten a response to this inquiry.

2 – The incident of the bombing of the building of the National Blood Transfusion Center in the Al Sab’een district in the Capital Secretariat on 17/4/2018

Based on the case file that the Commission has on the incident, at 10:30 pm on 17/4/2018, the building of the blood transfusion and research center, which is in the Al Sab’een district in the Capital Secretariat, was hit by a missile, which destroyed large parts of the building and destroyed a number of special equipment in the blood bank.

According to the report from the field researcher who was tasked with making a field visit by the Commission, the statements of some of the members of the medical and administrative staff in the center, the photographs, documents, and reports included in the file, as well as the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission, including MASH, ASHM, and KhAA, at 10:30 pm on Friday, 17/4/2018, Coalition airplanes were flying over the capital, and the building of the blood bank center in the Al Sab’een district of the Capital Secretariat was bombed with an air-to-surface missile that hit in the middle of the building. This missile destroyed large parts of the building, and the explosion destroyed most of the special equipment in the center, including the refrigerators and freezers, the blood test equipment, and the plasm equipment. The archive of the center was also damaged, and all of the stored solutions and medical supplies that were in the center. Since that date, the center has been closed and it has not provided services to the people, despite the fact that the center is the only government entity that provides the service of transfusing blood platelets and giving them to anyone who needs them for free.
Conclusion

According to the report from the field researcher who was tasked by the Commission and the testimonies of the witnesses, the Commission has concluded that the violation has occurred, and that the entity responsible for it is the Arab Coalition air force because it is the sole entity with control of the airspace of the Republic of Yemen during the war. It should be noted that the Commission has drafted a memo of inquiry on the incident and sent it to the command of the Arab Coalition Forces but has not gotten a response to this inquiry.

Sixth: Forced Displacement

Forced displacement of civilians is a violation that is punishable by national legislation, and it is prohibited by the provisions of international humanitarian law and Article 17 of Additional Protocol II of the Geneva Conventions. Due to the danger posed by these kinds of violations, and their link to armed conflict, the Commission has informed all of its monitors to prioritize monitoring and documenting these violations anywhere they occur. The Commission did this due to the danger of the effects of this violation and its expansion. Based on that, the Commission has been able, during the period that is covered by this report, to monitor and document (980) families who were forcibly displaced from their homes. All of the cases of forcible displacement that were investigated by the Commission during the period covered by this report were committed by the Houthis.

Examples of the investigations conducted by the Commission relating to forced displacement

1 – The incident of the forced displacement of the people of the village of Al Shaqb in the Saber Al Mawadim district in the Taiz governorate

According to the incident’s case file that the Commission has, the documents on the incident, the statements of the victims, and testimonies of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission, including AQMA, AMA, and HMS, large groups of armed men from the Houthis and Saleh’s forces surrounded the village of Al Shaqb in Tabbat Al Salihin in the Saber Al Mawadim district in the Taiz governorate on 4/1/2016. The armed men started firing bullets and shells from different kinds of weapons at the homes of the civilians in the village, and their shelling of the homes continued for a number of days, then they raided the village. They asked the people of the village to leave their homes, and the people were forced to leave the village. None of the civilians were allowed to remain in their homes or take any of their properties, and the people were forced to leave the village and leave their homes under the threat of force and because of the pressure they were under from the Houthis and Saleh’s forces. The people then moved to a nearby village. The number of families who were forcibly displaced from the village, according to the confirmed lists that the Commission has, is 282 families.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, the testimony of the witnesses, and the statements of the victims, the Commission has concluded that the violation has occurred, and that the entity responsible for this violation are the leaders of the Houthis and Saleh’s Forces in the Saber Al Mawadim district in the Taiz governorate.

2 – The incident of the forced disappearance of the people of the village of Sha’b Al Ukari – Al Rubaie, in the Al Taiziyah district of the Taiz governorate

According to the incident’s case file that the Commission has, the documents that are in the file, the statements of the victims, and the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission, and they include NMS, NAQ, and AMH, a group of armed men from the Houthis and Saleh’s forces came to the village. They were led by the Abu Adee, who is the Houthi supervisor in the area, and they raided the village of Sha’b Al Ukari in the Al Rubaie area of the Al Taiziyah district on 17/1/2017. During that time, the home of the victim, Sadeq Al Sururi, was raided, and he was detained. His family was forced to leave their home, and the families of the village were called and told to leave their homes, otherwise their homes would be bombed. At the time, the people of the village tried to negotiate with the armed men and convince them to allow them to remain in their homes, but they refused and insisted that everyone leave immediately. They did not allow the families to take any of their things with them, and the families had to leave their homes to other neighboring villages on foot. After the families left their homes, the members of the Houthis and Saleh’s Forces raided a number of the homes in the village and took up positions in them. The number of families who were forcibly displaced from the Sha’b Al Ukari village, according to the lists that were confirmed by the Commission, was 23.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission, the testimony of the witnesses, and the statements of the victims, the Commission has concluded that the violation has occurred, and that the entities responsible for this violation are the Houthis and Saleh’s forces in the area of Al Rubaie in the Al Taiziyah district of the Taiz governorate, and they are led by Abu Adeeb, the Houthi supervisor in the area.

Seventh: Besieging Civilians and Not Allowing the Delivery of Aid

National legislation and the provisions and rulings of international humanitarian law, specifically the text of Article 14 of Additional Protocol II of the Geneva Conventions, have banned besieging and the starvation of civilians, as well as not allowing them access to public services that are indispensable to them during armed conflicts. Also, in accordance with the principles of international humanitarian law, violations relating to not allowing access of aid through siege or the starvation of civilians, whether economically or militarily, totally or partially, temporarily or permanently, is one of the most flagrant violations of international humanitarian law because it violates many basic rights provided to civilians, including the right to life, food, health, and a dignified life. This violation also affects every aspect of the lives of the population in the areas that are under siege. During the period that is covered by this report, the Commission has been able to monitor a number of violations relating to the besieging and starvation of civilians, and these violations were committed by some of the parties to the armed conflict. The Commission has also monitored a number of allegations relating to aid not being allowed to be delivered because the command of the Arab Coalition to Support the Legitimacy closed all Yemeni ports from 6 to 8/22/2017. There was also what was in the statement from the World Food Program, from its Executive Director, David Beasley, which stated that the WFP has evidence that the Houthis have looted relief aid, manipulated the aid ID card system, and sold aid on the market. This statement was published on the website of the World Food Program, as well as a number of other websites. The Commission has monitored these incidents that are attributed to all of the parties to the conflict and investigated them, and they are as follows:

1) The Houthis

1 – Looting humanitarian aid from the Tareq bin Ziyad School, the Al Sabrah district, Ibb governorate

According to the incident’s case file that the Commission has, the documents that are included, the statements of the victims, and the testimony of the witnesses who were interviewed by the Commission, including NSA, RNM, and AAA, in mid-February 2018, the World Food Program and UNICEF provided relief aid supplies to people in need in the Al Sabrah district, and they put these relief and humanitarian aid supplies in one of the classrooms in the Tareq bin Ziyad School to prepare them for distribution. The only thing that remained for these supplies to be distributed was to wait for the remaining relief supplies from the donor organization to be distributed at once, but, on Thursday, 1/3/2018, at 10 am, the security supervisor of the Houthis in the Al Sabrah district, whose name is Abdulsalam Ali Ghanem Omari, raided the school by force of arms. He went towards the classrooms where the relief supplies were kept, and he broke the locks by shooting at them, then he and his armed men looted a large number of bags of flour, sugar, rice, lentils, and oil that were in the school. They took these supplies on the vehicles of the group, and they distributed a large amount of the aid supplies to the armed members of the group who were with him and took part in the looting.

Conclusion:

From the investigations that were conducted by the Commission and the testimony of the witnesses, the Commission concluded that the leadership of the Houthis and Saleh’s forces in the Al Sabrah district of the Ibb governorate, led by the security supervisor in the district, Abdulsalam Ali Ghanem Omari, are responsible for this violation.

2) The Air Force of the Coalition and Government Forces

The Commission investigated two incidents of sieges and stopping the delivery of aid that were attributed to the forces of the Arab Coalition in the following statements:

1 – The statement of Doctors Without Borders on 8/11/2017, which stated that, during the period from 6 to 8/11/2017, based on the decision by the command of the Coalition to close the land, sea, and air borders of the Republic of Yemen for three days, medical supplies from Doctors Without Borders to people in need Yemen were stopped. This was stated by Justin Armstrong, the head of the delegation of Doctors Without Borders, and he added that, despite attempts to request permission for the Doctors Without Borders plans to come in to deliver the aid, the command of the Arab Coalition did not allow them to come from Djibouti to Sana’a or Aden for 72 hours. “This would further exclude thousands of people most affected by the crisis from essential healthcare. Such measures would contradict the humanitarian principle of impartiality, which states that assistance should reach those who need it most, regardless of any political considerations.” (From the statement that was made on 8/11/2017 and published on the organization’s website)

2 – The statement of the International Committee of the Red Cross on 7/11/2018 regarding the forces of the Arab Coalition to Support the Legitimacy in Yemen not allowing a shipment of cholera tablets for the prevention of cholera from being brought into Yemen by the Red Cross. The Coalition did not give them a permit to bring the shipment in through the northern border of Yemen because the land, sea, and air borders were closed. There was also fear that not allowing the import of 50,000 vials of insulin would lead to the medicine being destroyed because the insulin must be cooled, until the end of the statement that was released by the International Committee of the Red Cross and published on its website.

The Commission is still working on completing its investigations into the two incidents mentioned in the two statements above, and it hopes that all of the parties would cooperate with it and provide it with the information related to this matter so that it is able to complete its investigations as soon as possible.

Second: Arbitrary Arrests and Enforced Disappearance

Article 48 of the Constitution of the Republic of Yemen and Article 9 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, which is ratified by Yemen, prohibit arbitrary arrests and the detention of individuals. Article 9 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights states that: “No one shall be deprived of his liberty except on such grounds and in accordance with such procedure as are established by law. Anyone who is arrested shall be informed, at the time of arrest, of the reasons for his arrest and shall be promptly informed of any charges against him.”

Enforced disappearance is considered a complex violation that affects many basic rights that are protected by international law, and it is a gross violation of human rights. The severity of this violation of human rights is that it affects more than just the direct victim, and affects their families, as well as their community as a whole, and the goal of committing this kind of violation is to instill terror and fear among the people because it violates their right to life. This violation is the reason that the Declaration for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance was created, and this convention was approved and published based on United Nations General Assembly Resolution 47/133 on 18/12/1992. The United Nations Declaration, the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance that was issued in 2006, and the Rome Statutes of the International Criminal Court from 1998, are the legal framework for submitting allegations concerning these kinds of violations.

The Commission has been able, during the period that is covered by the report, to monitor and document (586) cases of allegations of arbitrary arrests and enforced disappearances that were perpetrated by different parties all over the Republic of Yemen. The Houthis and Saleh’s forces have been proven to be responsible for (550) of the cases of violations, while government forces, security agencies belonging to the government, and the forces of the Coalition are responsible for (36) cases.

He was taken to an unknown location. After a while, the victim was moved to a detention center in the Political Security Organization building in Ibb city.
